Dear Parent / Learner

If parents around the world are asked what they want for their children, some might mention “achievement” or “success”, but most would reply “happiness”, “confidence”, “kindness”, “health”, “satisfaction”, and the like (Seligman et al., 2009). In short, people value well-being.

Mental health and physical health are inextricably linked. It is therefore that we, at Curro Aurora, are promoting physical activity. Your physical wellbeing and your lifestyle have an impact on your mental wellbeing. Many programs focus on getting learners more physically active, citing its benefits for their health both short and long term.

Sleep quality, physical activity and substance use are strong predictors of mental wellbeing and there is a causal relationship between good mental wellbeing and regularly consuming a healthy diet – eating the recommended amount of fresh fruit and vegetables.

Some learners find the notion of physical activity daunting and shy away from it. We recommend that they choose something they enjoy. If one does not like an activity, it will be hard to stick to, so one must find the right option for oneself. If your child is finding it difficult to stick to some exercise regime, assist them by creating a routine. Making time for exercise is important, so reserving a slot in their daily timetable ensures it does not get pushed aside by other priorities. It also helps to participate in physical activities together as a family – even a brisk walk around the neighbourhood is far better than no activity at all.

Sleeping is not something that you always associate with school due to the demands of a hectic study life, but regular and restful sleep is essential for good physical and mental health. While we are asleep, our bodies work to support healthy brain function and maintain our physical health. Sleep deprivation can affect important aspects of our mind and body such as our mood and energy levels. Assist your child by insisting on enough restful sleep – sleep time is not social media time.

The sustainability of learners’ well-being demands investments in acquiring academic, non-cognitive and work-related skills that are necessary to function well in the present and in the future. Wellbeing is a dynamic state: without sufficient investments to develop capabilities in the present, students are unlikely to enjoy wellbeing as adults. No trade-off between “being well” now and “becoming ready” for the future is necessary if the development of skills is well-balanced with other essential social and leisure activities, and if such development happens in a supportive and caring environment.

SCHOOL CALENDAR

All Curro schools will adhere to the term dates which Executive Head Mr JC Engelbrecht announced recently:

Grades R to 12
Term 2	Days	Term 3	Days	Term 4	Days	Total days
1 April – 31 May (ONLINE ONLY)	(40)	6 July – 23 Sep (Hybrid teaching)	57	5 Oct – 9 Dec (Hybrid teaching)	50	126 (166)
1 June – 26 June (BLENDED APPROACH)	19

The last day of school is scheduled for 9 December at this stage, but some learners will finish a bit earlier, depending on the examination timetable which we will compile as soon as we have a final version of the Grade 12 timetable as it impacts on venue availability.

Our online schooling will continue in terms of our commitment that no child is left behind:

- Our goal is to include all our learners and families, and any special provisions necessary will be made to ensure a continuation of learning for all the children under our care;
- We will continue uploading work for those still in lockdown to ensure that no work is missed by the learners during this time;
- We ask all learners to commit to their studies to ensure that they keep up to date with their curriculum and assignments as much as possible till such time as their grades are able to return to the classroom.

SCHOOL UNIFORM

Matrics: School uniform is to be worn on Mondays and Fridays, allowing enough time to have the uniform cleaned. Should you (the learner) have PE on a Monday or a Friday, please wear your full school tracksuit with blue pride T-shirt. We ask that learners are dressed neatly (and warmly) for school please. Grade 11 learners will be back on campus full time from Monday 31 August, and are to wear school uniform on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays.

As all Grade 8 to 10 learners will only be on campus every other day, learners are required to wear school uniform.

Please also note that normal hair and nail regulations still apply— let's look neat and tidy, ready for school.

FROM THE “CONSUMER STUDIES” DESK

Mrs Magdi du Preez

Consumer Studies, a science in its own. A common misconception about Consumer Studies, is that it is all about cooking and baking, but it is so much more than that. What I find most appealing about Consumer Studies, is that it has a finger in every subject-pie!

Consumer Studies focuses on developing knowledge, skills, values and attitudes in learners, to enable them to become responsible and informed consumers of food, clothing, housing, furnishings and household equipment, and to use resources optimally and in a sustainable manner.

Curro Aurora offers the food and nutrition option for our practical component, where learners learn how to prepare different baked goods, fruits, vegetable and protein products.

The practical component also includes a Practical Assessment Task, where learners must write a business plan, do market research, produce a product that fills a gap in the market, and even design packaging for their final product.

Consumer Studies opens up a lot of opportunities and set you up for success, academically and personally. It teaches you excellent life skills and practical skills, that you will not find in any other subject!

Possible career options for Consumer studies, (or Consumer Sciences) include consumer services or event management, marketing and management, dieticians, consumer scientists, researchers, chefs, food or fashion buyers, housing and interior design, education and training and much, much more!

Some feedback from our Grade 11 learners:

“Consumer Studies for me, is one of the most helpful subjects for the future. This subject teaches me a lot of important information that can guide me into adulthood. Information including money management, housing, etc. The subject really focusses on helping us consumers to make informed decisions and educate us on lifestyle related topics that are extremely helpful.” – Grace Chen

“I found it really interesting that interior design was part of Consumer Studies. I also realised how much effort you have to put into creating the perfect dish, and how that effort causes a relaxing effect.” – Jade Martins

“Consumer Studies teaches you from food and nutrition, to designing your house from the inside out, as well as how to manage the money in your account. Consumer studies teaches you a lot about what could happen in your day-to-day life.” – Michelle Weatherburn

With Consumer studies, you can't go wrong! I am a Consumer Scientist, and I am loving it!

Maybe you should try it too...

50% CAPACITY MEASURES:

GRADE 10, 11 & 12:

The group of learners at school will receive the daily teaching face to face, learners not at school will receive the same teaching via MS Teams

• At 50% capacity our Grade 10 learners will be at school for face-to-face teaching and continue with online learning on alternate days. However, while our Matric group is isolated in the Galaxy Hall writing Prelim exams, the Grade 11 learners will be at school every day as from Monday 31 August to Wednesday, 23 September. Grade 11s are to wear their school uniforms on Mondays; Wednesdays and Fridays.

- For all learners to be taught by their teachers at school, we will be following our normal timetable, practicing social distancing and making use of bigger venues for bigger groups whenever possible.
- The group of learners at school will receive the daily teaching face to face, learners not at school will receive the same teaching via MS Teams, online(Hybrid teaching).

GRADE 8 & 9

- For all learners to be taught by their teachers at school, we will be following a normal two-week cycle whereby each class is split into two groups, Group A and B. Group A will have face-to face classes on days when Group B will have online classes on alternate days and vice versa.
- 50% of learners in a tutor class to be at school on any specific day. This limits the number of bodies on campus for each day.
- Grades 8 and 9 learners are moving classes to limit academic time lost as teachers had to move to new venue, do sanitizing procedures for the class and then log on to the school network again and then access MS Teams to allow for hybrid teaching before classes could start. In light of this, we ask that learners please bring own sanitizing wipes or spray for their own desks as they move about. Though teachers do sanitise as far as possible between lessons, and the cleaning staff sanitise at breaks and after school, it is only prudent that learners take on the responsibility of looking after their own health too – the educational value of this cannot be over-emphasized.

Should you / the school be affected by load shedding, lessons will be made available via MS Teams for access by the learners when possible. We monitor attendance and logging into classes and downloading of material and recordings by using the INSIGHT app.

Curro Aurora offers safe school transportation to our families in the mornings and afternoons while adhering to strict Covid-19 protocols. Transport facility is offered to learners from Grade 3 - 12.

SPORT

Mr Adrian Ferreira

Ms Nicole Webb teaches Mathematics in the FET stage at the High School and is the Grade 12 Head. She also manages and coaches cross country and athletics. She competes in road running and I interviewed her and got her insight and thoughts on competing, training and fitness, as well as her running accomplishments:

How many times have you run the Comrades Marathon and which was your best and/or most memorable run?

- Have run 4 times
- Best run: Comrades 2019 (8:14)
- Most memorable run: Comrades 2018 (8:33) – Alex was 10 months old and I managed to wing comrades on a ridiculously low amount of training.

What inspired you to take up competitive road running?

I am slightly competitive by nature, especially with myself! I always want to push harder or get faster or run bigger hills. Running was a good goal for me to keep pushing myself. I have always been very active – I am a qualified aerobics and spinning instructor. Having taught classes for many years, I needed a change from that. After my first baby, running seemed like a good idea to shed the baby weight.

Do you compete in any other distance races?

My main goal each year is Comrades, but in training for that I do other marathons and ultra-marathons. I normally run 4 marathons and 2 ultra-marathons in training for Comrades.

What is a typical training week comprise of, building up to the Comrades?

I aim to get 5 runs in per week and 2 cross training sessions. My mid-week runs would be between 10km and 15km each (and I aim for one of the runs to be very hilly – I love training up Northcliff hill). Weekend runs range between 20km and 35km. For cross training, I enjoy swimming, spinning or gym work. Distances build up as you get closer to Comrades, with a few weeks being over 100km per week.

What fitness tips and training regimen can you give those interested in taking up road running?

To start running, keep your distances lower and focus on pace. Do not increase distance until you can maintain a comfortable pace over the distance you are currently running. If you increase distance too soon, you either remain slow (and get slower) or you will get injured. Cross training also benefits running as it makes you stronger and helps to prevent injuries. Run to enjoy it, it is a sport where you are your only competition (unless you are trying to beat me, lol!).

Why would you recommend learners to join the school cross country programme?

Cross-country is ideal for anyone, whether you are a competitive athlete or just trying to keep fit. It can be a social sport where you and your friends can run and enjoy it together. Running builds fantastic base fitness for any other sports as well. If you develop a love for running, it is a sport you can continue to do forever.

Inter-Curro Chess Online Tournament:

The Inter-Curro Chess Online Tournament took place on Saturday, 22 August 2020. Approximately 310 learners from all Curro schools got together online and played against each other in the spirit of great sportsmanship.

Dylan Williams, Oghenetega Akpoduado, Andrew Kriegler, Webster Mzara, Michael Areington and Thabo Singosho represented the High School with credible performances!.

The following are congratulated on finishing in the top 10:

- Dylan Williams: 4th in the u/18 age-group
- Oghenetega Akpoduado: 6th in the u/20 age-group

2020 Inter-Curro Virtual Golf Challenge hosted by Curro Aurora

Curro Aurora is hosting the Inter-Curro Virtual Golf Challenge currently taking place until Sunday, 27 September 2020. The purpose of this challenge provides an opportunity for Curro golfers to participate with, and compete against, the boys and girls from the other schools in the Curro family. Participants play three rounds on any course of their choice, and submit their points scores as individuals and/or as part of the team

Mr Adrian Ferreira and Mr Jono Wernich paired off with Matriculants Kieron van Wyk and Brent Barendsen respectively in the staff/matric challenge. This took place over 18 holes at Jackal Creek Golf Estate. This event also provided Brent and Kieron the opportunity to post a score for the Inter-Curro Challenge. The scoring format of the staff/matric team challenge was Betterball Stableford, which means that the better points score of each pairing per hole was added up to determine the winners.

Unbiased Match Report by Mr Adrian Ferreira:

The much-anticipated showdown between Jono & Brent and Adrian & Kieron started under the watchful eye of referee Mr Ahmet Turgut. The opening six holes proved to be closely contested with the pairing of Jono & Brent combining well. Adrian was misfiring but the steady play of Kieron kept it close. The par 5 9th hole was the turning point, with Adrian's crucial par giving him and Kieron the advantage ahead of the closing 9 holes. The supporters, who included our Executive Head Mr JC and Estate Manager Riaan, witnessed a spirited fightback by Jono & Brent that kept them in within a shout. Kieron produced a touch of magic on the par 4 17th, spinning his approach to within 1 foot of the cup for a tap-in birdie that effectively sealed the victory. Adrian & Kieron prevailed in what proved to be a keenly contested event!

The High School Golfers completed their first rounds of The Inter-Curro Challenge and scored the following (the overall standings of the first round of the Inter-Curro Challenge will be in the next issue):

- Kieron van Wyk: 70
- Kim Turgut: 75
- Kael Strydom: 77
- Stefano Marchetti: 77
- Brent Barendsen: 77
- Arnoux van der Merwe: 85
- Tae'yn Plaatjies: 92
- Berk Turgut: 97

This week's theme is Tennis:

A few of my colleagues and I were chatting about form when playing competitive matches in any given sport. The reality is that all players, at whatever level they play, will lose form or go through a bad patch. Sometimes it may be a technique flaw or a confidence issue. The true champions and sportsmen are those who can apply themselves to get out of the slump and to maximize their true ability.

Martina Navratilova (USA) is considered one of, if not the best, ladies tennis players ever. She competed on the professional circuit from 1975 until 2006. As a measure of her success in Grand Slams (major tournaments) alone, she won 18 Grand Slam singles titles, 31 major women's doubles titles (an all-time record), and 10 major mixed doubles titles, for a combined total of 59 major titles. This is Open Era record for the most Grand Slam titles won by one player, male or female.

Consider her quote below when you are not playing your best or going through a rough patch:
"What matters isn't how well you play when you're playing well. What matters is how well you play when you're playing badly".

Weekly Trivia:

We ask 5 sports-themed questions each week. The answers are revealed in next week's newsletter.

1. Which four major tournaments make up the Grand Slam?
2. Is the modern era of tennis, which 2 players have each won the men's singles 5 times consecutively at Wimbledon?

3. Who is the only singles player to have won a Grand Slam and Olympic gold in the same year?
4. Who is the last South African to win a singles Grand Slam tournament?
5. Who were the brothers who won the men's doubles at the 2012 Olympics in London, and which sisters won the women's doubles?

Good luck and no googling!

Previous weeks swimming answers:

- 1 Which swimmer was the first man to break the 60 second barrier for the 100m Freestyle in 1922, won five Olympic gold medals and went on to become a famous Hollywood movie star, notably for his role as Tarzan?
 - Johnny Weissmuller. Dozens of other actors have also played Tarzan, but Weissmuller is by far the best known. Weissmuller's distinctive Tarzan yell is still often used in films in his legacy.
- 2 Which South African swimmer won both the Women's 100m and 200m Breaststroke events at the 1996 Olympic Games in Atlanta?
 - Penny Heyns: She broke the world record in the 100m Breaststroke and the Olympic record in the 200m Breaststroke in these races.
- 3 Who were the 4 South African swimmers that broke the World Record and won the Gold Medal in the Men's 4x100m Freestyle relay event at the 2004 Olympic Games in Athens?
 - Roland Mark Schoeman, Lyndon Ferns, Darian Townsend and Ryk Neethling.
- 4 Who was the most successful swimmer at the 1972 Olympics in Munich?
 - Mark Spitz (USA) was the most successful athlete at the 1972 Summer Olympics in Munich, winning seven gold medals, all in world record time.
- 5 Who beat world record holder Michael Phelps to win the Men's 200m Butterfly at the 2012 Olympic Games in London?
 - Chad le Clos beat his sporting hero Michael Phelps in a time 1min 52.96 seconds.

WEARING A MASK TO SCHOOL

Mrs SJ Olivier

You have been provided with two masks by the school. You are welcome to wear your own mask. Remember that your cloth mask must have a minimum of two layers. You may not re-use a single use mask.

Always wear your mask correctly! The mask must cover your nose and your mouth and fit snugly over the bridge of your nose and against the sides of your face.

Before you put your mask on, wash or sanitise your hands properly.

Remember that you will have to be wearing your mask when you arrive at the school gate to have your temperature checked.

Avoid touching your mask while you are wearing it. Make sure your mask fits correctly so that you do not need to adjust it. If you do touch your mask, be sure to sanitise your hands immediately.

When removing your mask, do not touch the front of the mask. Remove it by using the ties around your head or behind your ears.
